HO LO CO

HO NOR

LO YALTY

CO URTESY

As you leaf through this book, lean back and let the memories draw you back into the past. Before your eyes will appear the highlights of the year gone by.

You see HONOR . . . in a building which earned your esteem . . . in a faculty worthy of respect . . . in a student body with dignity and courage . . .

You see LOYALTY . . . in athletics, whether victories of defeats . . . in prosperous music groups . . . in active speech troupes . . .

You see COURTESY . . . in classes . . . in a student council leading capably . . . in student publications . . . in every phase of school life.

The memories you see recorded here have combined to make this year one you will long remember. With this, the yearbook staff of Estherville High School presents the 1964 HO LO CO.

1964

In Memoriam

Ron Jensen

Our friend Ron, who has passed away
And has climbed to a higher realm of life,
Has gone away where he will stay
In the protecting arms of God.

His sojourn here was very brief,
So short a span of time,
But sweet memories outweigh our grief
And in true splendor shine.

Twas like the ships that pass in night
Not ever to return,
But we know his soul is guided on
Tho' earthly hearts may yearn.

The heights that he may now have reached,
Are attainable by us all,
And we know, as we have known,
He received his Father's call.

Creativity--new route to excellence.

Creativity is an old word in educational circles, but recent research studies are finding new and significant meanings for it. Studies may indicate creativity to be just as important a factor as intelligence quotient for academic achievement.

Originality, experimentation, initiative and inventive tendencies in boys and girls should be encouraged by parents and teachers from pre-school through graduation. If you possess creativity whether it be in the arts, literature, invention or everyday things, develop it. It may help you become a partner with the straight A genius in our national search for excellence. Creativity represents the highest form of thought.

W. C. Hilburn

Contribute Valuable Leadership and Service

The startling recollection came to me the other evening that it was 40 years ago a diploma of high school graduation was handed me. The second jolt to my consciousness was that, in retrospect, those 40 years have been a very short time. The third sobering thought was that the "sands of Time" are running low in my glass. The years have been busy ones and happy, too. The one regret is for the things that might have been done and were not. How about the time Joe lost his father and I did not realize the heavy load of responsibility that fell upon this sophomore lad's shoulders? Or about the time that Rita could not pay rent for the use of a band instrument and I did not know her father was dying of tuberculosis? These, and other similar events in the lives of high school students, were not included in my college courses on what to expect in the administration of a school.

In the years ahead you will meet many situations for which formal education has not prepared you. In coping with these you will have to depend upon dictates of your heart and not your head. There will be many shades of grey and not too many of black and white. May you develop the acumen to be able to put your finger on the vital issues of each; then arrive at a fair treatment of them, and--above all--initiate a program of action to do something about a solution. If you do, I guarantee you will find a zest to living and you will make a contribution to those with whom you work and live.

The Pepper Is Published Once a Week

Quill and Scroll is the chief goal of those working on the HoLoCo and Pepper. It is an International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. To qualify one must have been in the upper one-third of his class and he must have had a major job in publishing either the annual of the school paper. The award is given by the Iowa Daily Press Association each year to as many students as qualify. This year there were five that were given the Quill and Scroll pin and certificate at Award Day. They were Terry Borchers, Mary Jean Vaubel, Julie Grimm, Doug Bezdicek, and Kris Schutt.

The HoLoCo staff spends almost the entire school year and part of the summer preparing the annual. The staff sold concessions at a football game to earn some extra money.

The Pepper staff publishes a paper each week. It appears on the back page of the Estherville Daily News each Saturday. This year several staff members won a trip to Veisha to help publish the Iowa State Newspaper. The first semester the Pepper is published by the journalism class with a few others helping. During the second semester it becomes an extracurricular activity and those who want to participate must write an article. The staff is chosen with these articles in mind.

Through Active Work, Debaters

The Iowa Forensic League state debate tournament terminated an active year of debate activities for the EHS debate team.

The first significant success of the season was in November when the A squad, Eugene Carlson, Rick Timmins, Mark Goecke, and Gary Moreau, won the second place trophy at the large Worthington debate meet. November also saw Gary Moreau and Mark Goecke win a trophy at the Little National Debate Tournament held in South St. Paul. December brought on more tournaments and another trophy as the A squad placed second in the Hawkeye Debate Meet in Sioux City.

In spring the debaters won the district Iowa High School debate tournament in Emmetsburg defeating all other Lakes Conference schools which have a debate program. From there the team went on to take second place in the state Iowa High School tournament receiving one of the three "Divisional I" ratings which were awarded.

Out of the last twenty-six debates the decision favored the Estherville debaters twenty times. Two man teams from Estherville, from ninth graders to varsity, were undefeated eleven times during the season.

Increase Their Rank in N.F.L.

ROW 1: Mr. Purdy, Nancy Johnson, Judy Lutter, Mary Jean Vaubel, Sue Gibson, Marilyn Theesfeld, Ruby Enerson.
ROW 2: Rick Timmins, Jim Rogness, Ron Bendixen, John Duoos, Terry Borchers, Mark Goecke, Neil Clark, Gary Moreau, Bill Stafford.

The National Forensic League Chapter of Estherville High School is now in its eleventh year of existence. NFL exists to encourage greater numbers of students to acquire the invaluable training for leadership which can be gained by the effective use of the spoken word. The League motivates students to take full advantage of the opportunities available to them and to continue with zeal in their pursuit of proficiency in speech.

Students are eligible for membership after they have earned twenty points by taking part in contest of the Iowa High School Speech Association and National Forensic League contests, and also by performing before local organizations.

Kathy Mundt, Mary Jean Vaubel, Carolyn Jensen, Eugene Carlson, Judy Hall, Gary Moreau, David Nelson, Jim Rogness.

Thespians Act Well Their Part

Estherville Troupe 1841 the National Thespian Society is devoted to the purpose of furthering dramatic arts in secondary education. In fulfillment of this purpose our troupe presented the children's theatre production of "Cinderrella," participated in Junior class play "Tartuffe," Senior class play "Our Town," Contest play "The Lark," and in individual contest speech events.

The annual awarding of the Thespian best actor and actress trophy for outstanding achievement in dramatic presentation was awarded for 1963-64 to Judy Lutter best actress, and Neil Clark best actor.

The award of best supporting actor and actress was presented to Richard Timmins and Kathy Mundt.

The receipients of the dramatics award are chosen by the members of Estherville Troupe 1841 of the National Thespian Society and need only to be a member of the student body of Estherville High School.

Attend Veishea at Iowa State

The Future Homemakers of America started out a fun-filled year with a new activity--knitting lessons. FHA girls already skilled in the art, provided the instruction for the beginners.

Italy, along the Riviera, was the setting for the FHA girls' annual supper. All afternoon the aroma of spaghetti sauce filled the halls. The same evening, the girls came dressed in straw hats, sandals, mohair sweaters, and even bikinis, to enjoy a social evening together.

The big money-making project for the year was selling cookbooks. It was such a success that enough money was raised to charter a bus to Ames to attend Veishea.

Veishea was the highlight of the year. All year the girls had worked on committees and attended meetings to earn enough FHA points to be eligible to make the trip. They left early Friday morning and attended the planned Career Day activities on the campus of Iowa State University. Saturday, after the parade, the girls went to the open house displays and learned about the various vocations available in the Home Economics field and other fields as well.

The Future Teachers of America is an organization designed for all students interested in exploring the teaching profession. The year 1963-1964 was a growing year for the organization. Membership grew from seven to thirty-two.

No organization can operate an active program without adequate financing. Two most successful FTA projects included the sponsorship of a teen-hop and a car wash during the spring. Both projects proved to be hard work but fun.

Mr. Swinburne, sponsor of the organization, has made it possible for the group to take several trips throughout the school year. Officers, Eugene Carlson, Jim Hackett, Lynda Yost, and Diane Reeves, along with Terry Borchers, Rochelle Borchers, and Linda Olson, attended the State FTA convention in Des Moines, accompanied by Mr. Swinburne.

The year was highlighted by a trip to Minneapolis where the entire FTA attended Cinerama. On the way home the group toured Mankato State College.

The organization also had several panel discussion groups in which members of the faculty, members of the organization and local businessmen participated.

Under the new director, Mr. Haigh, the E.H.S. band learned and accomplished much in the 1963-1964 school year.

Fairmont King Korn Days and the annual Estherville Band Festival kept the band busy in the early part of the fall.

Meanwhile, the band was kept busy learning a new style of marching, plus marching for all home football games. The band marched their team to victory for Homecoming with a highly successful half-time show.

Two concerts were presented by the band this year, one in the winter, and another in the spring.

The pep band added spirit as they played for a few out-of-town football games, and all home basketball games. A new band group was started this year, the dance band, which played at the Christmas dance.

The large groups state music contest was held at Aurelia in May. The band received a rating of II+.

The band concluded the school year by playing at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

The Varsity Chorus enjoyed a very busy and successful year in 1963-1964.

The Highlight came early in the year when the chorus was extended an invitation to sing for the Iowa Music Educators annual meeting in Des Moines in November. The chorus presented an outstanding presentation of selections representing Baroque music.

In December the chorus sang on television at Mankato, Minnesota.

The best record since 1954 was the major accomplishment of the 1964 Midget football squad. With a total season record of six wins against two losses and a Lakes Conference mark of 5-2, the Midgets finished in third place in the Conference.

Their two losses came to the two teams that finished ahead of them in the Conference race. The Spencer Tigers, who ended up in second place with a 6-1 record, shut out the Red-and-White, 7-0, in one of the first games of the season. However, the Midgets rallied from this first loss in Conference play to win the next four encounters. In the second to last game of the campaign, the Midgets went to Storm Lake to challenge the number one Tornadoes for the first-place spot, and were handed their hardest setback, 35-6, to the team that later went on to gain the rank as number ten team in the state.

The Midgets won their first Homecoming in several seasons by defeating the Sheldon Orabs, 26-7.

Five Estherville players were awarded positions on the All-Conference squads. On the offensive team were Bob Johnston in the backfield, Jim Roberts at end and Marv Clark in the line; and on the defensive lineup were Wendell Aasby at a line spot, and Rich Sundall in the backfield.

The Estherville Midgets basketball squad sandwiched a win between two consecutive losses at the beginning and three at the conclusion of the 1963-64 season to end the agenda with a 10-8 overall mark and an 806 Lakes Conference record. They finished fourth place in the conference behind Champions Storm Lake (12-2) and Spirit Lake and Sibley (9-5). All three of these teams that placed higher than the Midgets advanced to the sub-state round of the state tournament.

The Midgets lost both of their matches to the Emmetsburg E'Hawks, but stayed on at least even ground with other conference foes in their two contests with each. They defeated the Spencer Tigers in both their season clashes, but were nosed out of the state tourney by the Tigers in their first post-season game.

Estherville's non-conference record was 2-2, winning games from Jackson and Algona, and dropping contests to Central of Sioux City and Pocahontas Catholic.

The Midgets landed Gary Hassel on The All-conference first team at a guard position, and Wendell Aasby and Bill Lee received honorable mention.

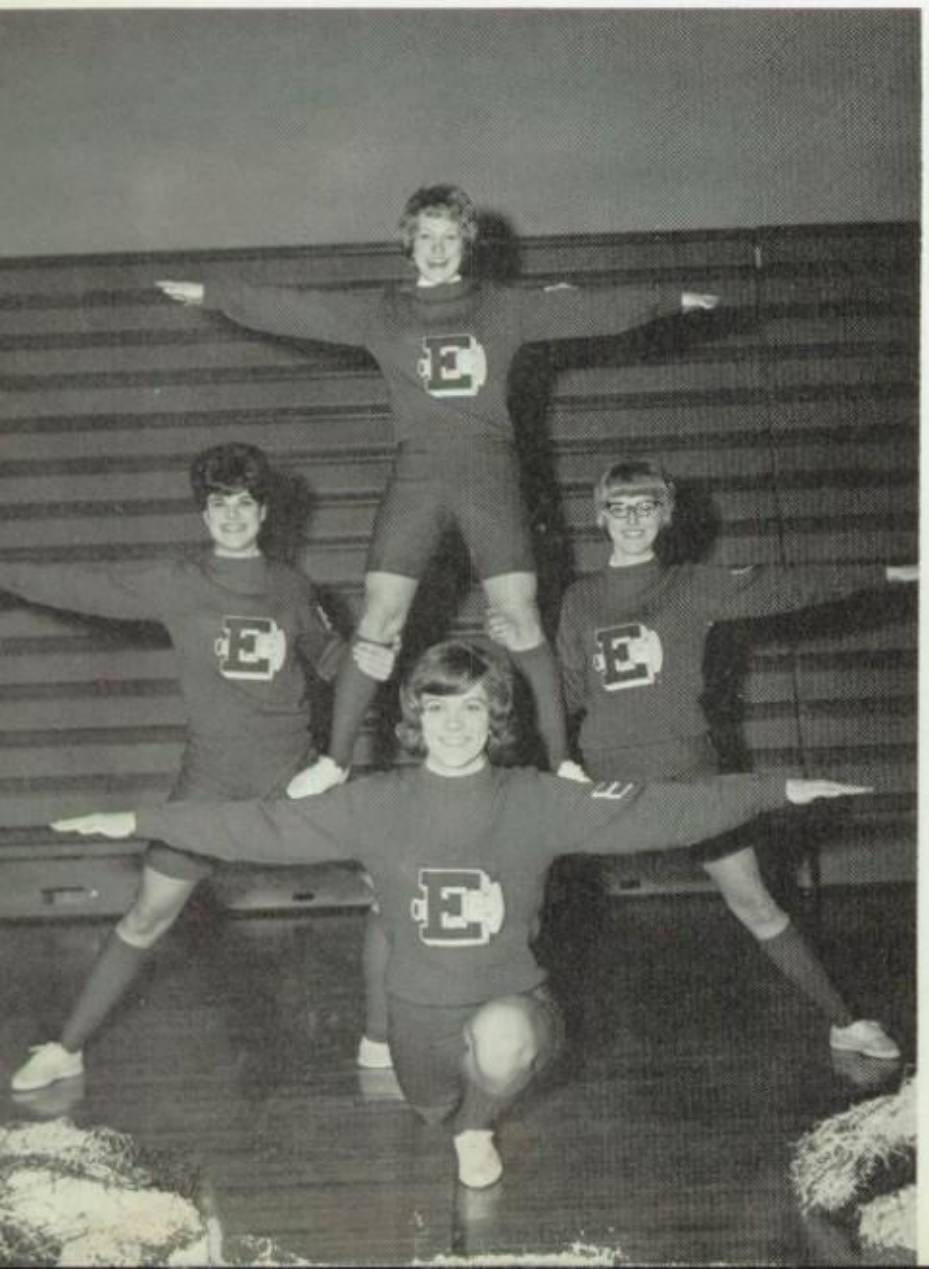
Cheerleaders



Five E.H.S. girls attended a cheerleading camp in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin and returned with a peppier, more active style of cheering. The four A-squad cheerleaders--Mary Meadows, Cheryl Crim, Janice Bahr, and Linda Tangeros attended plus one wrestling cheerleaders, Patsy Boise.

Many pep meetings were spent teaching the student body the new cheers they had learned at champ.

This year was the first time that E.H.S. elected special wrestling cheerleaders. They cheered two of the wrestlers to the state tournaments, and diligently supported the entire team throughout the season.

Estherville's Midget wrestlers came back from a slow start at the beginning of the season to turn in fine performances in the last four meets and do exceptionally well in the state wrestling tournament.

The Estherville grapplers lost their first six matches of the season before turning in back-to-back victories: trouncing Truman, 32-12, and then defeating Luverne, 30-10, to finish their dual meets season with a 2-8 mark.

Seven of the team's players advanced in the Sectionals of the state tourney, and four of these, Ron Solberg, Marvin Clark, Ken Kaltved and Steve Woodley advanced to the district tournament. Of these four, Kaltved, fighting at 133 lbs., captured the number four spot in the state at this weight, while 103 lb Woodley, wrestling with a swollen eye, became the runner-up to the champion in his weight division.

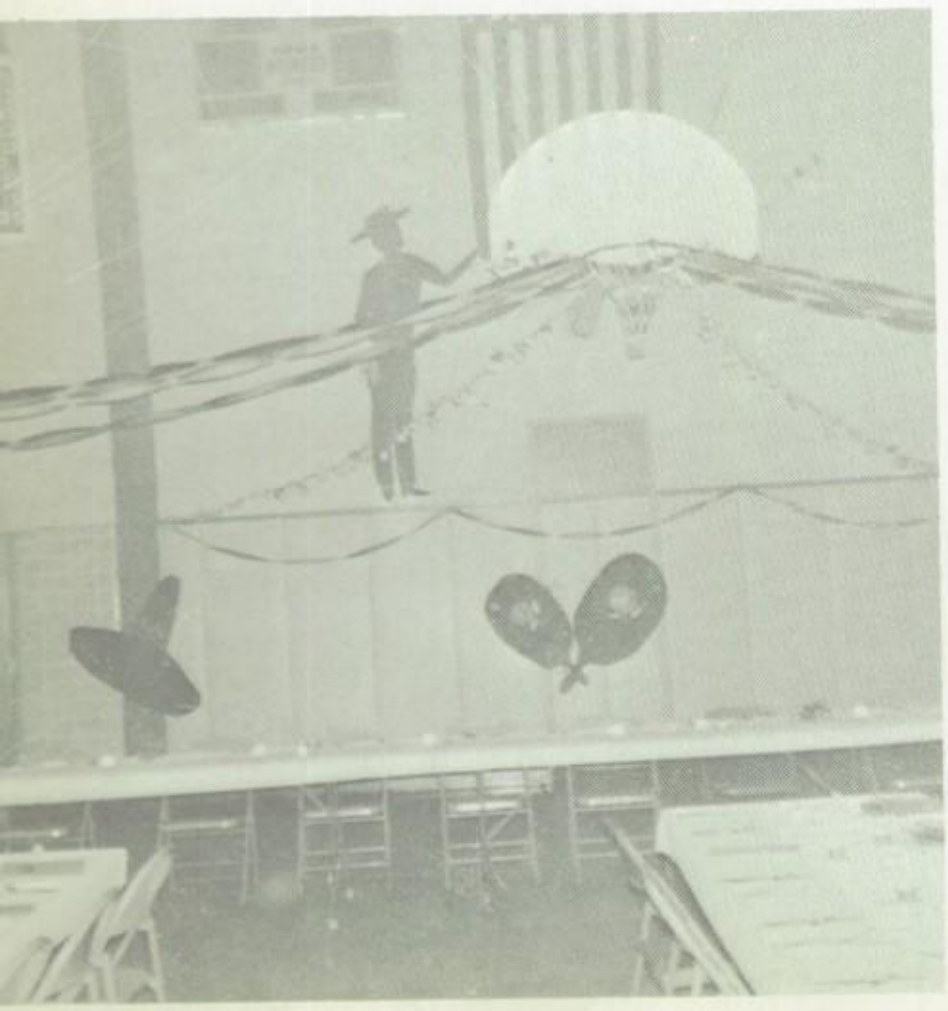
Prom Is Carried Out with a Theme



A view of the banquet decorations.

The Juniors presented a prom with a Spanish Theme for the Seniors this year. The high school gym where the banquet was held was decorated with several different colors of crepe paper. The baskets were decorated and filled with flowers. Silhouetted on the wall behind the speakers table were a Spanish lady and gentleman. Each girl received a miniature fan to help carry out the Spanish theme.

The dance was decorated to represent a Spanish mansion. There was a terrace on two sides of the gym where the tables and chairs were placed, giving those sitting on the side lines a very good view of the dance floor. The ceiling was done with midnight blue crepe paper and glittering stars hanging from the "sky."

A few days before prom no one would have guessed that this group of labouring students could be transformed into beautiful girls in formals and handsome men in suits or dinner jackets. The top picture shows a few of the honor privileged students studying on the school lawn. The bottom picture is a scene at the prom which was held May 15.
